Meet Ladybug, a 1-year-old, 49-pound Pit Bull mix with a happy personality and so much love to give! This sweet girl loves meeting new people, playing with her favorite toys, and soaking up attention. Ladybug is very treat motivated, which makes training fun and rewarding! She's still learning her manners and will thrive with patience, consistency, and plenty of tasty treats. Ladybug enjoys having her own toys and space during mealtime, so she'll do best with a family who respects those special moments. She wants a home where she can be the only pet, with children 16 years and older. If you're looking to enjoy the early days of fall with a playful, affectionate companion, Ladybug might be the perfect match!
